

MANCUNIAN BOXER CLUB OPEN SHOW

FEBRUARY 16th 2014

Judge GRAHAM MULLIS

Thanks to the Mancunian Committee for the invitation to judge and their hospitality and to the exhibitors for the super entry, really enjoyed the day.

Minor Puppy Dog 7

1st Cairns and Patterson's, Jimbren Dance In The Dark At Galicar

8 months brindle /white, He took my eye as soon as i saw him stacked, well made, good in profile, balanced with a good front and correct rear angulation, moved very well, his head is about right for his age, very clean and balanced, a true boxer expression, nice shaped eyes a good mouth and evident chin, very well handled, I am sure this young lad will have a very promising future. Best Puppy Dog

2nd Bee's, Beeann Spells Trouble

7 months, Well angulated front and back, moved around the ring with drive, a pleasing balanced head with a good mouth and a melting expression again about right for his age, good front, very smart when stacked although a little longer cast not quiet as balanced as the winner.

3rd McArdles's, Redmol Read All About It At McArmadaale.

Puppy Dog 5 (1)

1st Cherry's Charryforge Botticelli

11 month brindle/white, a clean well proportioned head a strong muzzle, lovely dark eyes and a cracking expression, mouth ok. elegant neck, a correct topline and tail set which together with correct angulation behind presents a nice picture in profile. His movement today was at times a little erratic but did enough to win the class.

2nd Revill's, Verdendo Country N'Western

11 months brindle/white, Completely different type to winner, a very stylish youngster, shows himself off to the full, good front, uses his neck and correct topline and tail set to present a pleasing outline, at times appeared slightly over angulated behind, a real baby in head, good mouth, chin, it needs time, moved and handled very well.

3rd Earl's, Knightcott Easter Parade At Ruption.

Class 3 Junior Dog 6 (2)

1st Chippendale's, Mylicam Mambo

15 months brindle/ white, a picture when stacked a lovely shape to this boy, elegant neck correct topline, good front, well angulated behind with good movement especially going away, lovely expression, dark eyes, good mouth, a tiny bit heavy in head for me but overall a worthy winner.

2nd Godwin's Sultash Morpheus

17 month brindle/white, Very stylish, showy dog, compact in body, maybe a touch over angulated behind, a very clean head with a good mouth and a melting expression, moved and handled well.

3rd Carter's, Susancar Ray Zarbett.

Yearling Dog 5

1st Brown & Hutchins, Winuwuk Mario Balotelli

Quality, stylish dog with a cracking outline, good front and quarters, uses his neck and topline to full advantage, good bone, pleasing head, not overdone with dark expressive eyes and a good mouth, moved with drive.

2nd Morrison's, Xandene It's In The Bag

18 months red/white, compact dog who whilst lacking the overall style of winner he has a good front is well angulated behind, a little heavy but a pleasing head with a good mouth, moved and handled well.

3rd Groves and Hare's, Jimbren Opposition Buzz.

Maiden Dog 3(1)

1st Wynne- Eyton's, Twrcymru Puttin On The Style

15 months brindle/white, short coupled boy with balanced head and a good mouth, he moved well keeping his topline all the time, could have better rear angulation.

2nd Woolliss's, Rameleon Play Away

12 months, brindle/white, a rangy youngster, well angulated to present a nice outline when stacked, he moved with purpose, his head still needs time.

Novice Dog 2 (1)

1st Hyde's Rosshill Hot Shot

Brindle/white boy with a nice outline, good angulation front and rear, a balanced head with a typical expression, mouth ok, although slightly long he kept his topline on the move and moved with drive.

Graduate dog 5 (1)

1st Huxley's, Harmaur Blue Line Trade With Blixen

Brindle/white boy with a lovely clean head, a good mouth excellent rise of skull and ear carriage, compact body, a good front, moved well but a fidget when stacked making it hard work for his handler.

2nd Myles , Ruption Jolly Roger With Boxadore

A stylish boy nice in profile with both good front and rear angulation, moved well with drive, a balanced head with a kind expression but preferred the head qualities of the winner.

3rd Stockdales, Marbelton Chase The Dream For Stockerbox.

Post Graduate Dog 3

1st Godwin's, Sultash Frankel

Brindle/white medium sized dog that I have admired from a puppy, love his head, balanced and clean with a dark eye, a good mouth with big teeth and an evident chin, has a good front, he keeps his topline throughout and moves with drive, enough angulation behind. Not overdone in any way. Res

Best Dog

2nd Welch's, Newlaithe Trojan

Red/white I have judged this one as a baby and have followed him, full of attitude, presents a lovely profile, at one with his handler he powers round the ring, at times moving slightly wide in front. Good head qualities but preferred the cleaner head of the winner.

3rd Wynne- Eyton & Pellow's, Twrcymru A Knockin Bett

Limit Dog 6 (1)

1st Beardsell & Van Beck's, Newlaithe Dooglebug

Red/white , still a youngster, a well handled showman who moves round the ring with drive and purpose, a good sized dog with a nice a good front although at times he can appear slightly over angulated behind, a balanced head with dark kind eyes and good mouth.

2nd Fielding's, Newlaithe Fast and Furious

Red/white from the same kennel as the winner, compact boy who looked good when stacked, moved and handled well, a pleasing head but slightly broad in the skull, strong boned square with a good fore chest, short backed with well muscled quarters., head clean with dark eyes and a good mouth.

3rd Vearcombe & Hales Macwatt We've Got It On With Seefeld

Open Dog 7 (2)

1st Morrison's, Xandene Midnight Runner

Brindle/white very well balanced dog who presents a super outline, a good sized dog in tip top condition, good front, well developed forechest, with an elegant neck leading to a correct topline and good quarters which he used to drive around the ring. A balanced clean head with a good mouth and lovely dark correct shaped expressive eyes completes the picture, well handled to Best Dog & Best in Show.

2nd Brown & Hutchin's Winuwuk Enzo Ferrari

Brindle/white, all boxer with lots of attitude but not overdone in any way. Compact medium sized dog, good front and quarters, presents a nice outline when stacked, ultra clean head with excellent rise of skull and a good mouth, evident chin. Moved and handled well, preferred the overall style of the winner.

3rd Esders, Roxiga Valentino Rossi.

Minor Puppy Bitch 8 (1)

1st McArdles, Redmol Ina Pickle at McArmada

7 months Red/white, just keeps catching your eye, a lovely baby with a perfect show temperament, gorgeous outline, a pretty head with good mouth, large teeth and an evident chin, her expression just melts you, she is balanced throughout with correct angulation, she moved around the ring with drive and purpose completely at one with her handler to win this class of lovely puppies, several of which have a rosey future, Best Puppy Bitch, Best Puppy In Show

2nd Brown & Hutchins, Diceulon Gin Fizz At Winuwuk

8 months red/white, a difficult decision as she has many of the same qualities as the winner and they will swap places many times, I just didn't think she had the attitude and ring presence of the winner but i'm sure it will come.

3rd Wimbush's Redmol Careless Whisper

Puppy Bitch 7 (1)

1st Woods, Per Una From Newlaithe

9 months brindle/white bitch which when stacked presents a lovely profile, she has good bone, correct angulation front and rear. Head just right for her age, balanced with nothing in excess, a good mouth a keen expression, she moved around the ring very well with purpose for one so young, very well handled.

2nd Cherry's, Cherryforge Primadonna

11 months brindle white, a stylish bitch who is balanced throughout, a good front, elegant neck, correct topline and good quarters, head is very clean with a wide mouth well padded muzzle and chin. Moved and handled well just preferred the expression of the winner.

3rd Palmers, Olleyville Leading Lady Via Palerty

1st Chippendales Mylicam Waltzing Matilda

15 months, this bitch is a pleasure to go over, completely balanced throughout, presents a square outline, a pleasing head which is not over done nice dark eyes and a good mouth, she has well laid back shoulders good angulation front and aft, moved well, this handler gets the best from her.

2nd Carters, Susancar Honor Wynna

15 months, brindle/white, again a well balanced bitch who presented a nice outline stacked, a good front and correct angulation front and rear, a balanced head with a good mouth and lip placement, she showed and moved well I just preferred the head of the winner.

3rd Herring's Amymones Hocus Pocus At Broxborough

Yearling Bitch 8

1st Taylors, Pure Target With Newlaithe

Brindle/white bitch with the prettiest of heads, a good mouth and a kind expression, good rise of skull, not overdone in any way. She presented a lovely outline when stacked, good angulation front and rear, moved with drive around the ring, well handled.

2nd Hambleton's, Marbelton Golden Girl

A good sized bitch with the type of head you expect from this kennel, a balanced clean head with a good mouth and a typical expression, presented a nice outline when stacked, movement ok but was not really interested so hard to get her on her toes.

3rd Brooks, Jinnybrux Jaffa Cake

Maiden Bitch 1

1st Beaumont's Beauimres Slinkymalinky

Square stylish bitch although standing alone presented a lovely outline, head is clean with a dark expressive eyes, a good mouth, well angulated all round, moved well with drive.

Novice Bitch 5 (2)

1st Cobbs, Stanryk Street Of Dreams

15 months red/white, a quality bitch who is really pretty, balanced head with kind dark eyes which give her a lovely expression good rise of skull and a wide mouth, good front angulation, elegant neck, lost her topline a little times on the move but showed well to deserve her win.

2nd Stockdale's, Stockerbox Morning Star

Red/white, very clean head with dark eye, a good mouth, when stacked presents a lovely square outline, moved around the ring with drive, just preferred the outgoing temperament of the winner.

3rd Palmer's, Boxania Royal Spice Via Palerty

Graduate Bitch 6 (3)

1st Davis's Stellvana Enchanted At Bricliff

Brindle/white nicely angulated compact bitch who showed very well throughout, her lovely balanced head won her the class, a melting expression and a good mouth, when stacked she looked the part although a little down on her pasterns she is a quality bitch who moved around the ring with drive, well handled.

2nd Bees, Beeann Secret Affair

Brindle/white, a taller bitch who has a nice profile when stacked, good front and rear angulation, she moved very well with drive, splitting hairs really but just a shade heavier in head than the winner.

3rd Wragg & Portlock's, Harmaur Trade Blueprint With Sheiken

Post Graduate Bitch 7 (4)

1st Watson & Crooks, Roylark Miss Chief

Red/white, a very stylish, showy bitch, shorter coupled with a good front, correct topline, spot on tail set and well angulated quarters, her head is well balanced and clean with a good mouth and a real boxer expression, she can be a handful but today moved around the ring with drive, fully deserved Reserve Best Bitch..

2nd Wimbush's Stellvana Crazy Diamond for Redmol

Brindle/white bitch i have always liked from the ringside, a lovely clean head with the darkest of eye, a melting expression, bodily she has a good front, well laid back shoulders, good rear angulation she kept her topline at all times and moved well, just preferred the attitude of the winner..

3rd Hambleton's, Marbelton Bubble Wrap

Limit Bitch 5 (3)

1st Cairns, Galicar Insolence

Brindle Bitch, balanced throughout, this bitch has good bone but is elegant and very stylish, correct front, well angulated quarters and a good topline, showed off her lovely profile. Just my type of head, clean, no excess wrinkle or flesh, very good mouth with large teeth, evident chin, dark melting eyes, typical expression. She moved with drive and real purpose to a fully deserved Best Bitch and Reserve BIS

2nd Mr C Mackay's Caljan Snow Patrol

Brindle/white, a tall elegant very showy bitch, moved very well, well angulated front and rear with a good topline, bodily a nice bitch, her head whilst balanced has a good mouth but her smaller eyes spoil the overall expression slightly for me.

Open Bitch 2 (1)

1st Beardsell & Van-Beck's, Newlaithe On Design

Brindle/white, when stacked looked lovely in profile, well angulated rear and a good front which she used well on the move, her head was a touch plain for me but appealing with a nice expression, she was a little nervy in the ring so difficult for the handler to get the best from her.
