Well done.

I would finally like to thank everyone who came along today, when I looked at both my dog and bitch line up it made me feel very satisfied indeed. As you are probably aware after reading my critique I like my Boxers to have both substance and elegance, they are a noble breed who require this elegance that sets them apart from other breeds, I found what I was looking throughout my judging today, there were one or two stars on show today. Lastly , thank you so much to the committee of Mancunian Boxer Club for your invitation, I loved it !!
